Thursday, April 12. 1705.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 16.

Venice, April 3.

WE receiv'd Advice t'other Day, that the Count of Leiningen has detach'd from the Bressan towards the Trentin 2500 Horse under the Command of the Generals Visconti and Sereni, to meet ('tis suppos'd) the Succours expected from Germany: And we have since receiv'd Advice, That 2 Regiments of those Succours are arriv'd in the Trentin, viz. that of Bareith, and that of Wirtemberg; and that they are to be followed by 8000 Prussians: All which Troops are, 'tis said, to march into the Veroneze.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 16.

Milan, April 4. Our last Advices from the Camp before Verue, are, That a Commissary of Provisions having deserted from that Place, had assur'd the Duke of Vendome that the Garrison was in great Want of Provisions, and in a wretched Condition; particularly, that 500 of them who were sick, had no Physicians to attend them, nor had any Medicines administred to them. But the French have for a Month together talk'd so much of the great Want the Garrison of Verue is reduced to, and in the mean time that Garrison having defended the Place with the same Courage and Vigilance, as if they were well provided with all Things; we give no more Credit to what the French say. We understand they are mightily alarm'd at the Duke of Savoy's having caus'd his Cavalry to pass the Po; that thereupon the Duke of Vendome has set Men to work Night and Day upon a Line to cover him from any Insult; and that he has recall'd to his Camp the Horse he had sent into Quarters of Refreshment. We are inform'd the King of France has sent him Order to resign the Command of his Army in Piedmont to the Duhe de la Feuillade, and to put himself at the Head of that in Lombardy to observe the Imperialists, and oppose their Designs. Mean time 'tis reported, that part of the Succours the Imperialists expect from Germany are arriv'd on this side Trent; that the rest are following them; and that the Grand Prior of France has thereupon caus'd the Troops which block'd up Mirandola to abandon that Blockade, and reinforce his Army.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 17.

Trent, March 31. Yesterday the foremost Troops of the Regiment of Wirtemberg, which make the Vanguard of the Succours we expect, march'd from hence, to join the other Imperial Troops in the Valley of Polifella, where 1500 Horse of the Army under Count Leiningen are likewise arriv'd. The Regiment of Dragoons of Zinzendorf, has taken the same Route.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 17.

Amsterdam, April 17. The Advices from Ratisbon confirm, that Prince Eugene was preparing to set out from Vienna, after Easter, to go to Italy. The Troops of Prussia follow very close the Regiment of Wirtemberg, which is arriv'd in the Trentin. They speak well at Munich, of the good Order they observ'd in their March. The same Letters tell us the Count of Lewenstein is expected at Straubing to reside there, and take upon him the Administration of the Government of Bavaria. General Bagni is to command the Troops remaining in that Country. The Generals Gronseldt and de la Tour will make the Campaign on the Rhine; and General Erbeville is to serve under Prince Eugene in Italy.

Ausburg, April 9. The Prussian Troops continue their march towards Italy, through Tirol, with all possible Diligence. Some Advices from Vienna, by Way of Ratisbon, tell us, that the Malecontents of Hungary have taken by storm the little Town of Modern, and put the Garrison to the Sword, sparing only the Governour. 'Tis still talk'd that most of the Imperial Troops that are in Bavaria, will be order'd to march to Hungary.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 17.

Vienna, April 4. The Baron de Sirmay, sent from hence to dispose his Country-men the Hungarians to an Accommodation with the Emperor, having had a Conference with General Berezzini, was refer'd by him to Prince Ragotski; to whom he went, and having made some Overtures to him, we are assur'd that Prince persists in demanding that things be re-establish'd on the ancient Foot of the Liberties and Privileges of the Hungarian Nation.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 16.

Vienna, April 4. This Morning arriv'd from Hungary an Express sent by General Heister, to acquaint the Emperor, that the 30th of last Month he attack'd near the Lake of Balaton the Body of Malecontents commanded by Count Caroli, consisting of 4000 Horse; who at the first Discharge retiring into a Wood, he pursued them thither, and kill'd many of them; and that the following Night Count Caroli came out of the Wood and attack'd him; but was repuls'd, and had a considerable Sum of Money that he had extorted from the Inhabitants of the open Country, taken; together with his Cook and 2 of his Pages. The 2d Instant, the Regiment of Salm pass'd in Review, on the other side of the Danube, before the King of the Romans and Prince Eugene of Savoy; and afterwards march'd towards Moravia, to help to defend that Province from the Insults of the Malecontents. P. S. We have just now receiv'd Advice, that Count Caroli lost 1300 Men in the Action with General Heister; that the latter took from him a great Booty he had made in the open Country, consisting of 4 Barrils fill'd with Mony, 200 Waggon Loads of Goods, &c. The last Advices from Buda tell us, that 1300 Men of regular and Militia Troops, that march'd out of Pest situate on the other side of the Danube over against the said Town of Buda, had surpriz'd the Village of Gambo, and pillag'd it after they had put to the Sword 800 Malecontents they found in it; and that in their Return from thence, meeting with a Detachment of Malecontents consisting ready, but for the Rains which have fallen almost without Intermission for several Days past.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 6.

Paris, April 6. Monsieur Amelot de Gournay, Counsellor of State, whom the King has nominated to go Ambassador Extraordinary to Spain, in the Room of the Duke de Grammont, is preparing for his Journey; but 'tis thought will not be going before the end of May. Monsieur Amelot de la Houffaye, so well known by his Writings, is to go with him in Quality of Secretary of the Embassy. The Duke of Grammont is not to leave the Court of Madrid till his Successor arrives. The Princess of Ursini is on her Departure for Madrid: Her Gentleman has married the Daughter of Monsieur Orri the Intendant, and both are to go in her Retinue with her. The Marshal de Villeroy took Leave yesterday of the King, to return to Brussels. The Marshal de Villars apply'd himself diligently to the making of the necessary Dispositions for the Campaign; and very carefully causes the new Horses of the Army he Commands, to be accusom'd to stand Fire.

From the Brussel Gazette, April 14.

Brussels, April 14. The 9th of this Month the Marshal de Villeroy return'd hither from the Court of France: Yesterday, his Son the Duke of Villeroy, set out from hence for Versailles. The 10th being Good-Friday, his Electoral Highness of Bavaria, assisted at the Divine Service and Procession perform'd that day in the Royal Chappel of the Palace; on Easter-Day his Electoral Highness held a publick Chappel with the Knights of the Golden Fleece, wearing the grand Collar of that Order.

The Royal Essence for the Hair of the Head and Perriwigs, being the most delicate and charming Perfume in Nature, and the greatest Preserver of Hair in the World, for it keeps that of Perriwigs (a much longer time than usual) in the Curl, and fair Hair from fading and changing colour, makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and effectually prevents it from falling off or splitting at the ends, makes the Powder continue in all Hair longer than it possibly will, by the use of any other thing, by its incomparable Odour and Fragrancy it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, and makes the Heart cheerful, never raises the Vapours in Ladies, &c. being wholly free from (and abundantly more delightful and pleasant than) Musk, Civet, &c. 'tis indeed an unparallel'd fine Scent for the Pocket, and perfumes Handkerchiefs, &c. excellently. To be had only at Mr. Allcraft's a Toyshop at the Bluecoat Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, seal'd up, at 2 s. 6 d. the Bottle with Directions.

Notwithstanding divers Plaisters, &c. are publish'd, pretending a Cure for Corns, which are generally made to imitate that noble and effectual Plaister (publish'd by the first Author) which not only presently removeth the Anguish thereof, but likewise deadneth them to the root, insensibly and safely, being distinguish'd with a Seal, having this Motto, Art finds means. To be had only of Mrs. Scampton at the Angel in Cornhill over against the Mermaid Tavern, at Mr. Osborn's at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and at Mr. Girard's at the three Flower-de-Luces near Northumberland-House in the Strand. Toy-shops, at 1 s. per Box, seal'd up with Directions.

A New Office of Assurance, upon the Lives of Men, Women and Children, is Establish'd at the Bell and Dragon at Lincolns-Inn Back Gate, which is of that excellent Constitution, That by a Man's Assuring his Wife's Life, and his own Life, for the Benefit of each other, and their Children, there will come into the Family 500 l. upon the death of both of them, viz. 250 l. upon the death of the first of them, and the like Sum of 250 l. upon the death of the other. The Charge for each Subscriber will be 7 s. 6 d. paid down at Subscribing, 2 s. 6 d. thereof being for the first Claim, and after that paid out, then 2 s. 6 d. upon the death of every Subscriber, and 6 d. per Quarter. By the Constitution and Articles or Settlement of the said Office, it plainly appears, how the same will tend greatly to the good of Mankind, (and how charitable it is) for thereby the Fatherless and Widows may be relieved in their Distress; a Man provide for the Wife, and the Wife for the Husband, Parents for their Children, and Children for their Parents, and Friends and Relations for one another. The Design is just and honourable, the Benefits and Advantages propos'd certain, and the Charge of each Subscriber but small and inconsiderable, which going out by little and little may easily be sav'd by the Diligence and Industry of some, as well as spared out of the common daily Expences of others. And if a Person, whose Life is Assur'd, goes beyond Sea, or into the Wars, the Life may be chang'd. At the Request of some Persons, call'd Quakers, care is taken for their Accommodation. Court Days for the Trustees approving Subscribers, are the first and third Thursday in every Month: But the Articles of Settlement are to be seen, and subscribed unto, upon any Day, at the Bell and Dragon aforesaid. Office Hours are from 9 to 12, and 2 till 6, every Day, except Holy-Days.

A Draught of the new Invention, now way 13 Inches all bright cast Iron.

The Author of the New Invention for making Chocolate the finest and cleanliest in the World, Sells ALL NUT 4 s. a pound, Sugar and Nut 2 s. a pound, to 3 pound a quarter of a pound Gratis. Six other Sorts at as reasonable Rates. 800 Inventions will be dispos'd of by Subscriptions, to put by that laborious loathsome way of making up on a Stone, And that the Nobility and Gentry may be better satisfied that there is none like what is made by this Invention, he makes at their Houses 4 Days a Week, allowing him a Privacy, the working part being a Secret. The Invention is to be seen, and the Chocolate sold by none but the Author in Stropion's Court in White-Fryers, the third Door behind the Green Dragon Tavern in Fleet-street. Note, That none of his eight Sorts of Chocolate admits of Course or foul Settings, as is usual with others.
